Re: Doster, et al. v. Kendall, et al, Case No.: 1:22-cv-00084

Dear Judge McFarland,

We write respectfully seeking the Court's input concerning the urgent need for relief for several of the intervening plaintiffs who face imminent and irreparable harm.

Since the filing of the motion to intervene on May 3, 2022, the United States Air Force (Defendants) has accelerated their administrative, punitive, and separation actions against several intervening plaintiffs. Concerned that their individual plights are getting lost in the larger plaintiff group, some of the intervening plaintiffs facing imminent dismissal have requested that, absent imminent relief, we withdraw them from this case and file an appropriate case(s) on their behalf in an appropriate district(s). We have asked these intervening plaintiffs to wait until at least this upcoming Wednesday, July 13, 2022, for this Court to rule on the request to intervene. This is the latest date that would allow us, if needed, to withdraw them on the evening of July 13 and file a new action seeking a TRO on July 14, 2022, possibly leaving just enough time to obtain relief.

For example, yesterday, one intervening plaintiff was provided with his notice of involuntary separation from the United States Air Force. If this action is not enjoined, he will be separated in the next three weeks. Other intervening plaintiffs face similar circumstances, prompting this correspondence beseeching the Court to provide guidance for the benefit of our clients, all of whom have dedicated years of military service to our country, especially those facing imminent harm.

We therefore humbly and respectfully ask the Court if it intends to issue a decision on the pending motion to intervene and corresponding injunctive relief before July 14, 2022. We appreciate the Court's indulgence in making this unorthodox request and the Court's understanding of the circumstances that compel this request.

If there are any questions, I can be reached via email at wcox@sirillp.com and via phone at (830) 265-5622.

Sincerely,

Wendy Cox
